was kept hot and full all the time. "It's hard to describe Andy. There was something very little-boyish, elongated, the wide mouth accentuating the ugliness of her face. How could he have coupled with this." "I do know enough to know the Edgar is not equipped for an atmosphere entry. My idea was, not to bring down the whole ship but only what's aboard the ship that we need. Which is a pilot. Might that be possible?" the air. It was Hinda's voice, and when the hunter heard it he smiled for she was singing tunes he had. So they welcomed an opportunity to tour fairyland. The place was even more bountiful than the last. "Thank you, Winey, for the encouraging words. You always did know what it takes to buck a person. Subject: Enclosed Certificate. Though my vowels may sound a bit wuzzy, and my consonants (hie) somewhat muzzy. In the brig he saw immediately that there was no jailor and then that there was no prisoner. Furious. own. She's in the kitchen right now, fixing Robbie's formula. I'll go get her." "Se/eene, love," he said. "What a delightful surprise." "Terrific, just terrific," Barry replied with authentic warmth. He'd always scored well at this preliminary. carefully avoid trends and formulas in an effort to publish a balance of different types of fantasy and sf. little kid on the 22nd, Silver Lake on the 19th and 16th, etc., etc., etc." "Just what we were doing. Taking stock of our situation. We need to make a list of what's available to us. We'll write it down on paper, but I can give you a general rundown." He counted off the points on his fingers. "I won't I can't bear it." Amanda screamed once more as the knife dropped from her fingers. But she did not go into the cottage to clean. She stood waiting for the hunter to come. Her eyes and ears strained for the signs of his approach. There were none. Maybe Detweiler was a vampire. And that's why I'm on the concert circuit with Jain Snow; as far as I'm concerned, the only real blues singer and stim star. "It's a good thing Senator Burkhart can't hear you say that" said another officer. But by the next. when he was so sure he'd be picked for the ground team. "Well have to get cutting tools from the ship," he told his crew. "They're probably in there. What a place this is! I can see we're going to be busy." He walked along the edge of the dense growth, which now covered several acres. He came to a section where the predominant color was purple. It was strangely different from the rest of the garden. There were tall whirling derricks but they were frozen, unmoving. And covering all the derricks was a translucent network of ten-centimeter-wide strips of plastic, which was thick enough to make an impenetrable barrier. It was like a cobweb made of flat, thin material instead of fibrous spider-silk. It bulged outward between all the crossbraces of the whirling derricks. "Brethren," he repeated. And then, "There's been considerable talk in the city and the suburbs since we walked off the job this morning about Divine Wrath, the inference being that us fellows, by bringing the Project to a halt, are in for some. Well, don't you believe it, fellow members of Local 209? don't you believe it for one minute! Nobody's going to incur Divine Wrath just for making sure he's got enough bread on the table and enough left over from his paycheck to have a couple of beers with the boys. If anybody's going to incur it, the Company is. Amos stood blinking as jewels by the thousands fell out on the floor, glittering and gleaming, red, now covered several acres. He came to a section where the predominant color was purple. It was. "I just want to point out that instead of an expedition, we are now a colony. Not in the usual sense of planning to stay here forever, but all our planning will have to be geared to that fiction. What we're faced with is not a simple matter of stretching supplies until rescue comes. Stopgap measures are not likely to do us much good. He answers that will save us are the long-term ones, the sort of answers a colony would be looking for. About two years from now we're going to have to be in a position to survive with some sort of lifestyle that could support us forever. We'll have to fit into this environment. ledge. Young has written thirty-nine stories for F&SF over the years, and we can think of only three writers who have contributed as much fiction as Mr. Young (Poul Andersen, A warn Davidson, and Ron Goulart). A Robert Young story is always a pleasure because its high quality is as predictable as its subject matter is unpredictable. Here he gives us the real story behind why a certain tower in Babylon was never finished and why all great builders, from Nebuchadnezzar to Moses (Robert), have such a rough time.
